BJP may drop candidates in 225 UP seats over public anger: Akhilesh

MANOJ BHADRA
Lucknow, 9 June

Samajwadi Party (SP) President Akhilesh Yadav has claimed that the ruling BJP is facing growing public discontent in Uttar Pradesh and may be forced to replace its candidates in nearly 225 Assembly constituencies ahead of the 2027 state elections.

In a strongly-worded post on X, Akhilesh Yadav alleged that the BJP leadership has lost confidence in a large number of its sitting legislators, especially in regions where the party suffered setbacks in the 2024 Lok Sabha elections.

Claiming that major changes were being planned within the BJP, Akhilesh Yadav said: "I have heard that the BJP is changing its candidates in all the Assembly seats of Allahabad (Prayagraj) because the party feels that its MLAs and leaders were more focused on personal gains while Lok Sabha seats slipped away in 2024."

The SP chief further asserted that a similar formula is being considered across all the 43 Lok Sabha constituencies won by the INDIA bloc in Uttar Pradesh, as well as several other seats where, according to him, the BJP managed to win despite public opposition.

"This means that the BJP candidates may be changed in approximately 225 Assembly seats. It is also being heard that many BJP MLAs themselves are unwilling to contest the next election as they see little hope of defeating the PDA (Pichhda, Dalit and Alpsankhyak) alliance," he stated.

Akhilesh Yadav claimed that the BJP's traditional support base has significantly eroded and that many of its legislators are reluctant to invest resources in what they perceive as a losing battle.

The SP president attributed the alleged anti-incumbency against the BJP to issues such as inflation, unemployment, corruption, law and order concerns, paper leaks, crimes against women, and what he termed attacks on constitutional values and reservation rights.

"Current BJP MLAs have understood the extent of public anger. The BJP government's policies have led to widespread resentment among people," Akhilesh Yadav said, listing allegations ranging from corruption and extortion to favouritism and injustice.

The BJP, however, dismissed the SP leader's claims and advised him to focus on his own party's affairs.

Senior BJP leader and MLC Vijay Bahadur Pathak said the BJP continued to enjoy strong public support and pointed to the party's recent electoral performances in states such as Bihar, Assam and West Bengal.

"It is entirely BJP's internal matter whom the party chooses to field in elections. Akhilesh Yadav should avoid making statements based on hearsay, as it only reflects political immaturity," Pathak said.

He also questioned the SP chief on the future of the INDIA alliance in Uttar Pradesh and seat-sharing arrangements with the Congress.

"Instead of speculating about BJP candidates, the Samajwadi Party should first clarify whether it will contest the 2027 Assembly elections as part of the INDIA alliance and how many seats it intends to share with the Congress," he said.

Cong issues 12-year report card of PM, flags failures on economy, jobs, farmers market

STATESMAN NEWS SERVICE
New Delhi, 9 June

The Congress party on Tuesday launched a scathing critique of the Narendra Modi-led government, releasing a 12-year "accountability report". The report, they claimed, documented major failures in governance, economic management, employment generation, agriculture and social welfare despite what the party described as extensive publicity campaigns.

Addressing a press conference, AICC Research Department Chairman Rajeev Gowda and Communication Department Research and Monitoring In-charge Amitabh Dubey alleged that the government consistently prioritised image-building over on-the-ground delivery. "Propaganda has replaced performance", Gowda said, asserting that many of the Centre's flagship promises had failed to translate into meaningful improvements in ordinary citizens' lives.

The Congress leaders criticised the government's economic record, questioning claims that India was on track to become the world's third-largest economy. Gowda argued that the rupee's depreciation against the US dollar had weakened India's standing and reflected deeper concerns about economic management.

"The government continues to make grand announcements, but the weakening rupee and investor exits indicate deeper concerns about economic management," he said, alleging that significant foreign capital had flowed out of Indian markets in recent months.

Highlighting rising inflation, he said that the prices of essential commodities and household necessities had increased substantially during the BJP government's tenure. He pointed to the rising costs of LPG cylinders, petrol, diesel, milk and pulses, arguing that household incomes had not kept pace with inflation.

UP digitises over 12 lakh manuscripts, unveils one of India's largest knowledge preservation drives

STATESMAN NEWS SERVICE
Lucknow, 9 June

In a major step towards preserving India's civilisational knowledge heritage, Uttar Pradesh has uploaded details of more than 12.20 lakh manuscripts onto the Gyan Bharatam Portal, emerging as one of the leading contributors to the national mission aimed at documenting, preserving and digitising ancient manuscripts.

The exercise, spanning 71 districts, has brought to light a vast repository of religious, philosophical, literary, scientific and historical works, underscoring Uttar Pradesh's position as one of India's richest centres of traditional knowledge.

According to data uploaded on the portal, Varanasi ranks first with 3.12 lakh manuscripts, followed by Ayodhya with 2.44 lakh and Rampur with 2.32 lakh manuscripts. Significant collections have also been documented in Prayagraj, Siddharthnagar, Saharanpur, Mathura and Lucknow, among several other districts.

Officials said the collections include rare works on the Vedas, Ayurveda, astrology, ritual traditions, philosophy, agriculture and Buddhist literature. Among the notable discoveries are manuscripts of the Rigveda Samhita, Aitareya Brahmana, Aitareya Aranyaka, Shukla Yajurveda texts and rare Buddhist works written in Burmese script.

The statewide survey has also revealed several historically significant manuscripts, including a 1640 CE manuscript of the Harivansha Purana, an exceptionally small illustrated Bhagavad Gita manuscript dated 1867 containing all 700 verses, and a nearly 250-year-old illustrated Gita manuscript featuring depictions associated with Lord Krishna. Other important finds include an 1840 manuscript of the Vishnu Purana and a nearly 200-year-old palm-leaf manuscript of Purushottama Mahatmya, both considered valuable sources for the study of India's religious and intellectual traditions.

UP Tourism and Culture Minister Jaiveer Singh said on Tuesday that the initiative goes beyond preservation and seeks to reconnect future generations with India's knowledge systems.

"Gyan Bharatam Mission is not merely about cataloguing old manuscripts. It is about safeguarding centuries of knowledge, philosophy, literature and cultural memory.

Congress candidate's nomination for RS rejected

STATESMAN NEWS SERVICE
Bhopal, 9 June

In a major twist in the Rajya Sabha polls for Madhya Pradesh, Congress candidate Meenakshi Natarajan's nomination was rejected on Tuesday evening amidst a high-voltage drama between the ruling BJP and Opposition Congress leaders.

The cancellation of Natarajan's nomination has paved the way for a likely walk-over to BJP candidate Mahesh Kewat on the third Rajya Sabha seat from Madhya Pradesh.

On Tuesday afternoon, the BJP had submitted an objection against Natrajan, alleging that she has deliberately hidden information about a court case against her in her nomination papers.

According to BJP's advocate Sanket Gupta, a case is registered against Natrajan in a court at Hyderabad in Telangana, which he said she had not mentioned in her nomination papers. Countering the allegations, Congress leaders said that Natrajan had only received a notice from the court.

After the scrutiny of the objections and arguments, the Returning Officer ruled in favour of the BJP, and rejected Natarajan's candidature.

The decision provoked protests by the Youth Congress late Tuesday, who burnt the effigies of MP CM Dr Mohan Yadav and Legislative Affairs Minister Kailash Vijayvargiya.
