

ELECTION OF SHAREHOLDER DIRECTOR – EXTRACTS OF RELEVANT ACTS, SCHEME, REGULATIONS AND NOTIFICATIONS

In terms of Section 9(3)(i) of the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1970, Shareholder Directors of the Bank shall have to be elected by the shareholders, other than the Central Government, from amongst themselves, depending upon the extent of capital issued under clause (c) of sub-section (2B) of Section 3 of the Act. The relevant sections of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949, the Banking Companies (Acquisitions and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1970, Nationalised Banks (Management and Miscellaneous Provisions) Scheme, 1970, the relevant Regulations of Central Bank of India (Shares and Meetings) Regulations, 1998, Reserve Bank of India Mater Directions dated 28.11.2025 on (Commercial Banks - Governance) Directions, 2025, SEBI (LODR) Regulations, 2015 and the relevant provisions of the Companies Act, 2013, are reproduced below for the information of the shareholders.

I. THE BANKING REGULATION ACT, 1949

Substantial interest- Section 5 (n-e)

- i. In relation to a company, means the holding of a beneficial interest by an individual or his spouse or minor child, whether singly or taken together, in the shares thereof, the amount paid upon which exceeds two crore rupees or such other amount as may be notified in the Official Gazette by the Central Government or ten per cent. of the paid-up capital of the company, whichever is less;
- ii. In relation to a firm, means the beneficial interest held therein by an individual or his spouse or minor child, whether singly or taken together, which represents more than ten per cent of the total capital subscribed by all the partners of the said firm.

Prohibition of common Directors- Section 16(1)

No banking company incorporated in India shall have as a director in its Board of directors any person who is a director of any other banking company.

Restrictions on Loans and Advances- Section 20

- (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in section 77 of the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956), no banking company shall,—
  - (a) grant any loans or advances on the security of its own shares, or -
  - (b) enter into any commitment for granting any loan or advance to or on behalf of—
    - (i) any of its directors,
    - (ii) any firm in which any of its directors is interested as partner, manager, employee or guarantor, or
    - (iii) any company not being a subsidiary of the banking company or a company registered under section 25 of the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956), or a Government company] of which or the subsidiary or the holding company of which any of the directors of the banking company is a director, managing agent, manager, employee or guarantor or in which he holds substantial interest, or
    - (iv) any individual in respect of whom any of its directors is a partner or guarantor.

- (2) Where any loan or advance granted by a banking company is such that a commitment for granting it could not have been made if clause (b) of sub-section (1) had been in force on the date on which the loan or advance was made, or is granted by a banking company after the commencement of section 5 of the Banking Laws (Amendment) Act, 1968 (58 of 1968), but in pursuance of a commitment entered into before such commencement, steps shall be taken to recover the amounts due to the banking company on account of the loan, or advance together with interest, if any, due thereon within the period stipulated at the time of the grant of the loan or advance, or where no such period has been stipulated, before the expiry of one year from the commencement of the said section 5:

Provided that the Reserve Bank may, in any case, on an application in writing made to it by the banking company in this behalf, extend the period for the recovery of the loan or advance until such date, not being a date beyond the period of three years from the commencement of the said section 5, and subject to such terms and conditions, as the Reserve Bank may deem fit: Provided further that this sub-section shall not apply if and when the director concerned vacates the office of the director of the banking company, whether by death, retirement, resignation or otherwise.

- (3) No loan or advance, referred to in sub-section (2), or any part thereof shall be remitted without the previous approval of the Reserve Bank, and any remission without such approval shall be void and of no effect.
- (4) Where any loan or advance referred to in sub-section (2), payable by any person, has not been repaid to the banking company within the period specified in that sub-section, then such person shall, if he is a director of such banking company on the date of the expiry of the said period, be deemed to have vacated his office as such on the said date.

Explanation. — In this section—

- (a) "loans or advance" shall not include any transaction which the Reserve Bank may, having regard to the nature of the transaction, the period within which, and the manner and circumstances in which, any amount due on account of the transaction is likely to be realised, the interest of the depositors and other relevant considerations, specify by general or special order as not being a loan or advance for the purpose of this section;
- (b) "director" include a member of any board or committee in India constituted by a banking company for the purpose of managing, or for the purpose of advising it in regard to the management of, all or any of its affairs.
- (5) If any question arises whether any transaction is a loan or advance for the purposes of this section, it shall be referred to the Reserve Bank, whose decision thereon shall be final.

Further, any reference made under aforesaid provisions pertaining to the Companies Act, 1956 shall be suitably construed as references made under relevant provisions under the Companies Act, 2013.

Provisions related to Advances to Bank's Directors, Lending to Related Parties etc., as mentioned in Reserve Bank of India (Commercial Banks – Credit Risk Management) Directions, 2025 shall also be applicable in this regard.
